

Public Law 99-380
99th Congress

An Act

To direct the Secretary of the Interior to release a reversionary interest in certain lands in Orange County, Florida which were previously conveyed to Orange County, Florida.

Aug. 14, 1986
[H.R. 1740]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. RELEASE OF REVERSIONARY INTEREST.

(a) RELEASE.—

(1) TO ORANGE COUNTY, FLORIDA.—The Secretary of the Interior, on behalf of the United States, shall release to Orange County in the State of Florida the reversionary interest of the United States contained in the deed described in paragraph (3).

(2) REVERSIONARY INTEREST.—The reversionary interest referred to in paragraph (1) is the condition which provides that title to the lands described in the deed shall revert to, and revert in, the United States if the lands cease to be used for recreational purposes or if such lands are deemed to be necessary for national defense.

(3) DEED.—The deed referred to in paragraph (1) is the quitclaim deed dated February 11, 1972, by which the United States conveyed to Orange County, Florida, a site of approximately 12,000 square feet on the Apopka-Vineland Road, formerly used by the United States as a radar site.

(b) CONDITION OF RELEASE.—The Secretary shall release the reversionary interest described in subsection (a)(2) only if Orange County, Florida, agrees to use any proceeds from the sale of the land referred to in subsection (a)(3) for park and recreation purposes (including the construction of buildings and facilities for the storage of equipment and materials used for park and recreation purposes).

Public buildings and grounds.
